Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurAt 1:59 a.m. in Spokane, Washingtoneight days before the 1980 presidential electionVince Camden pockets his stash of stolen credit cards and drops by an all-night poker game before heading to his witness-protection job dusting crullers at Donut Make You Hungry. Along with a neurotic hooker girlfriend, this is the total sum of Vince's new life. But when a familiar face shows up in town, Vince realizes his sordid past is still too close behind him. During the next unforgettable week, he'll negotiate a coast-to-coast maze of obsessive cops, eager politicians, and assorted mobstersonly to find that redemption might exist, of all places, in the voting booth. Revue de presse(An) immensely entertaining crime thriller and wry social commentary. (Chicago Tribune)Rich in robust characters ad wry dialogue, with agile prose, a big heart and a finely tuned plot. (Seattle Times)A splendidly entertaining, thoughtful book ... Jess Walter continues to impress. (Sunday Telegraph)What makes Walters third novel so enjoyable is Vince, a flawed but sympathetic character trying to find redemption.
