Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThis classic collection of stories moves from England, France and Spain to the silver sands of the South Pacific. It includes the famous story 'Rain', the tragedy of a narrow-minded and overzealous missionary and a prostitute, and 'The Three Fat Women of Antibes,' an extravagantly sardonic tale of abstention and greed, as well as a host of other brilliant tales.Revue de presse"Fascinating tales, sharply revealed characters, a fine narrative craft" (J.B. Priestley)"He was a superb storyteller - one of the very best in our language - who wrote with a wordly, sardonic understanding of the human condition. Writing was his life; everything else was secondary to it" (Daily Mail)Prsentation de l'diteurThis classic collection of stories moves from England, France and Spain to the silver sands of the South Pacific.
