Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurTHE BOOK: A narrative counterpoint between two women, two South Africas.

Kristien Muller returns from London to her homeland to fulfil a promise. Her grandmother lies on her deathbed unleashing a turmult of myth, legend and brute fact. Confronted by the realities of a land hurtling towards change, Kristien discovers that the present holds its own moments of savagery. A searing panorama of South Africa's experience, reminiscent in its political imaginative scope of Marquez's One Hundred Years Of Solitude.Revue de presse"A highly successful fusion of fabrication and reinvention . . . Histories, half-truths, myths and fables weave themselves around an exile's narrative of return to a nation on the brink of political transformation. . . . A compelling story. Get a copy."-The Boston Sunday Globe "One of [South Africa's] prominent fabulists . . . gives us a glimpse of what may be the future of literature in this nation as it emerges from the censorship and darkness of its oppressive past. . . . Follows in the tradition of Karen Blixen's Out of Africa."-San Francisco Chronicle
