Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurThe Bastion Prosecutor Episode 1 Futuristic trilogy The Bastion Prosecutor is about mans legacy on planet Earth. It is about where our ancestors may have come from as much as where faith dictates we did. It is a glimpse into a future. It is about the antagonism between learning and belief; science and religion; a dilemma that has risen and waned since the earliest civilisations. It is about conviction, not just in accepted ideals but also the unacceptable. The Bastion Prosecutor is about the frontiers of space. Mans inevitable pursuit of the unknown and his innate necessity to colonise; driven in this case as much by environmental calamity as by instinct. It is about technology and the misuse of knowledge. The Bastion Prosecutor is about high adventure and love, about deceit, greed and the unexpected. It is about a tapestry of secrets where threads pass from the past to the future. Finally, it is about hope. The Bastion Prosecutor, an epic trilogy science fiction at its most believable.
